Does Death End All?

W. J. Bryan's doctrine on the money question may or may not be sound, but his doctrine on the immortality of the soul is incontrovertible. If he had never uttered another passage but the following his name deserves to stand among the good men of the century:

"I shall not believe that this life is extinguished. If the Father designs to touch with divine power the cold and pulseless heart of the buried sinner, and make it to burst forth from its prison walls, will He leave neglected in the earth the soul of man, who was made in the image of his Creator? If He stoops to give to the rosebush, whose withered blossoms float upon the breeze the assurance of another springtime, will He withhold the words of hope from the sons of men when the frost of winter comes? If matter, mute and inanimate, though changed by the forces of nature into a multitude of forms, can never die will the imperial spirit of man suffer annihilation after it had paid the brief visit, like a royal guest to this tenement of clay?"

"Rather let us believe that He who in his apparent prodigality wastes not the rain drop, the blade of grass, nor the evening's sighing zephyr, but makes them all to carry out his plans, has given immortality to the mortal."

Whether Judge Hargis be innocent or guilty of aiding and countenancing assassination he is alike a dead weight upon the Democratic party, of which it should rid itself.

Whether true or not—and God knows we hope it is not—there is a deep-seated, popular belief that the Judge is behind the lawlessness in Breathitt, and he owes it to the party with which he has affiliated to relieve it of his weight, failing in this he should be removed. The Democratic party cannot afford to carry such a dead weight, even if it desired to, and the time is ripe for it to show its repugnance to the Republican method of warfare by casting aside everybody and everything which are suspected, no matter how unguilty of such crimes.—Lexington Democrat.

Liquor Dealers Alarmed.

Unless we see with blurred vision, there are troublesome times ahead for the trade. The prohibition fanatic has, with the tenacity of devils, held their forces together and made gains for the last twenty years, that bid ill to our trade. Let them increase in like ratio their numbers a few years to come and our business will be swept from existence.—The Bar.

What the Churches Say of the Liquor Traffic.

Methodism proclaims that, "The liquor traffic is so pernicious in all its bearings, so inimical to honest trade, so repugnant to the moral sense, so injurious to the peace and order of society, so hurtful to the homes, to the Church, and to the body politic, and so utterly antagonistic to all that is precious in life, that the only proper attitude toward it for Christians is that of relentless hostility. It can never be legalized without sin. No temporary device for regulating it can become a substitute for Prohibition. License, high or low, is vicious in principle, and powerless as a remedy."

Presbyterianism "earnestly recommends to ministers and congregations in our connection, and to all others, to persevere in vigorous efforts in every State and territory against a traffic which is the principal cause of drunkenness and its consequent pauperism, crime, taxation, lamentations, wars, and ruin to the bodies and souls of men."

The Cumberland Presbyterians: "Nothing short of constitutional and statutory prohibition of the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages by the United States and the several states will be satisfactory."

The United Presbyterians: "Prohibition by law of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage is the true method of dealing with this terrible evil by the state. Any form of license or taxation of the liquor traffic is unscriptural in principle and contrary to good government. The time has come when Christian people should cease to be indifferent and unite their efforts, regardless of previous party affiliations, for its entire suppression."

The Baptists proclaim: "We favor the speedy and entire prohibition of the liquor traffic." Christian Church: "We fully realize that without unity and persistence, steadfastness and courage, victory of the church over the saloon can never come. The battle must go on, the battle will go on, until the day of victory dawns. An issue like this is never settled till it is settled right."

The Lutherans: "The right, and therefore the wisest and most efficient method in dealing with the traffic in alcoholic liquors for drinking purposes, is its suppression, and we therefore urge those who comprise the church which we represent to endeavor to secure in every State the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage."

From Abroad.

LETTER XIX.

FROM JERUSALEM.
Fast's LLOYD HOTEL,

Dear Judge: To save effort and space, I shall convey to you a modest opinion about ancient Jerusalem, in dogmatic form. Over the jutting promontory of Jerusalem, embracing five unique summits with corresponding valleys, there has always rested a sacred mystery. In the dim mists of its earliest history there emerge here a throne and an altar, presided over by the most august personage of all history between Adam and Christ. "Now consider how great this man was unto whom Abraham the patriarch gave a tenth out of the chief spoils."—Hebrews 7: 4. He is set forth in the Scripture as the most exalted type of the Son of God. To this hallowed spot Abraham with his vast grief and doomed child came to offer his infinite sacrifice to God, with that master faith "that staggered not at the promise of God," but grew stronger as he approached these mountains of God. As Jerusalem is now "trodden down by Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled" (Luke 21: 24), so was it strangely held by Gentiles for 400 years after Israel settled in Canaan, until the time of David. Yet Jehovah had long before chosen it, and was reserving it for his appointed time "For the Lord hath chosen Zion; He hath desired it for his habitation. This is my resting place forever: Here will I dwell; for I have desired it."—Psalm 132: 18.

According to God's promise, the Christ, the Sceptre, the holy city and the temple belonged to the tribe of Judah. That is the reason why the territorial line between Judah and Benjamin made an otherwise unaccountable bend at Jerusalem. The line came to the Kedron valley at the Virgin's Fountain (En Rogel), thence north to a point near the north end of the Haram where it turned west and came out near the present Jaffa gate. This gave Moriah, Ophel and Zion to Judah. Bezetha and Akra were left to Benjamin. Akra is situated west of Golgotha, and separated from the central summit of Moriah by a part of the deep Tyropean valley. Akra was a Jebusite fortress, and a part of Jerusalem. The fierce warriors of Benjamin were not able to dislodge the Jebusites from Akra; but Judah captured and burned the southern section that was allotted to them. But later, the Jebusites erected an impregnable fortress south of the temple hill on the northeast point of Ophel. The only flowing fountain about Jerusalem was the En Rogel, 950 feet distant in the edge of the Kedron and under the rocky foot of Ophel. From this fastness on the mountain top, the sagacious Jebusites cut a secret passage through the solid rock to a hidden basin in the heart of the mountain, where the pure, sweet waters of this mysterious fountain were gathered. Some one—perhaps Ornan, his Jebusite friend—betrayed to David this vital secret. After the destruction of the lower city, David offered the leadership of all the tribes of Israel to the soldier who could climb up by the "gutter"—this secret passage—and smite the garrison. Joab waded through the dark basin, ascended the circular shaft, 40 feet through the rock, passed along the gloomy corridor, thence ascending the rock-hewn stair-way into the prison court of the fortress to meet the defiant army that garrisoned the fort. This perilous exploit of this mightiest of Hebrew captains, gave David this citadel of Zion where he ever afterwards made his home; and this was called "the city of David." David and Solomon never lived on the western hill now called Zion, but in the limited area of 920 by 424 feet now covered by the South end of the Haram. And under this Haram floor must be found the sepulchres of David. The walls that Nehemiah restored embraced only the temple hill and Ophel south of the "city of David." The city of Jerusalem gradually spread over the valleys and covered modern Zion, but this latter hill is never called Zion in the Bible. Zion was where the ark of God rested. It was a divine designation of the dwelling place of Jehovah. After the ark was removed to the temple on Moriah, the term Zion is never applied to any other spot in Jerusalem. Moriah and Ophel were always the heart of Jerusalem.

A learned and devout civil engineer, Mr. S. Bewick, of Pennsylvania, who worked assiduously and long on the problem in Jerusalem, has proven indisputably that Nehemiah confined his work to Moriah and Ophel; and to him the world is indebted for the identification of the walls, towers, gates and pools mentioned in the third and twelfth chapters of Nehemiah. At the beginning of the Christian era, a city of unrivaled splendor had extended itself over the various hills and valleys. A system of cyclopean walls and gigantic towers that amazed the world, encompassed it on every side. On the terraced summit of Moriah—the Mount Zion of the Psalms and Prophets—there shone the splendor of a series of temples—twice the size of Solomon's rising on quadrangular platforms, one above the other, the shining series being crowned by the lofty central building, the Holy of Holies, whose gold and marble screened from unpriestly eyes the Sakhrat—the venerable altar of Melchizedek, Abraham, Isaac and David. No Jew could think of the "holy city" without intensified emotions of pride, patriotism and piety. The very name thrilled the Hebrew heart in every land, and the actual vision of its unrivaled beauty and glory, and monuments of such a history as no other nation ever had or can have, shook the souls of Hebrew pilgrims with a fervid passion that could find no adequate expression even in David's Psalms of Zion.

Jesus had a Hebrew heart. He knew the city's inevitable doom. No wonder, then, when all this translucent scene broke upon the troubled vision of the Christ at the descent of the Mount of Olives, with irrepressible tears he cried aloud in pain and grief for the impending woe and rain that met his prophetic gaze.—Luke 19: 41-44. This pathetic wall of anguish was wrung from the Saviour's lips on Sunday morning, April 2, A. D. 30. On Tuesday he finished his public ministry, and on his way from the temple he answered the inquiry of his disciples concerning the destruction of temple and city. Luke 21: 5-36. A little later the same day as he sat on the Mount of Olives and was gazing down upon the fated city, four disciples came to him with questions that drew from him the transcendent discourse of comprehensive eschatology in Matthew 24 and 25 with which every believer in the great Teacher ought to be familiar.

This letter closes here to give you an opportunity to read again those clear and inspiring prophecies. If you do not promptly turn to the twenty-first chapter of Luke and the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth of Matthew and reverently read, the inference that you are more interested in my letters than in the teachings of Christ, might be perfectly natural.

Rare and Ancient Relic.

While on professional business in a remote part of the Mountains of Eastern Kentucky, Judge H. Clay McKee, of this city, ran upon an old fashioned hand mill, one of the kind spoken of in the Bible: "Two grinding at the mill," and most likely 150 years of age. He bought the mill and now has it in Mt. Sterling and thinks of sending it to the World's Fair at St. Louis. The lady from whom he bought the mill was about 80 years old and said she got it from her great uncle who gave it to her in his last days as a reward for her care and attention to him. The mill was in the garret and had been doing the grinding for the family and neighborhood, and no doubt had crushed many bushels of corn for the famous moonshine still. The lady from whom the judge bought the mill was a little bit shy about telling too much of its history, and, doubtless suspected Judge McKee of being a revenue officer in search of the near by hidden worm of the still. The mill was evidently made in the 18th century, and can be seen in its primitive state on application to Judge McKee.

Assassins—Not Democrats.

The editor of the Glasgow Times has been asked: "Do you not know that the Hargis faction in Breathitt county is Democratic?"

The editor of the Glasgow Times does know that the Hargis faction in the Breathitt county feud is Democratic.

The editor of The Times does know that Judge James Hargis, the leader of one the Breathitt county factions, is a Democrat and a member of the Democrat State Central Committee—a position which he should at once resign, or be forced out of.

But what has any of this to do with the present condition of affairs in Breathitt? No Democrat has any more right to assassinate a Republican than has a Republican to shoot a Democrat in the back. The assassin belongs to no party. He is an outlaw, a blood thirsty beast whose extermination is the duty of every brave, honest man. If it is true that the murderers and ambushers of Breathitt county are Democrats, then so much the more and stronger the reason why they should be relentlessly hunted down and brought to justice. Democracy is not the party of assassination.

The outlaws who are murdering citizens and burning homes in Breathitt county are assassins—not Democrats.

The Harm of Dancing.

The Cincinnati Post writes a vigorous editorial against dancing. When the secular papers see so much harm in this foolish, vulgar and sinful practice it seems that it was time Christian people and papers were telling in plain words why it is wrong to dance. Among other good and timely things, it says:

"The harm in dancing is largely an ill of association. The girls who dance are mostly of an age when impulse rules, rather than reason, and they often meet men who are not fit companions. The result of such association, in some instances, is a breaking down of the natural barriers that should exist between a 'man of the world,' which is the nice name for an unprincipled scoundrel in good clothes, and an innocent woman."

"The less you or any other girl has to do with such men, the better. They have no right to the society of good women; no right to smiles and pleasant conversation; no right to associate with your mother's daughter."

Executes the Law.

We heartily endorse the sentiments uttered by the Advocate concerning the punishment of crime in Montgomery county.

We have no desire to create a prejudice against any particular individual; but the good citizens of this community must see to it that all violators of the law are given adequate punishment for their crimes if they expect to live in peace and safety and have the respect of their neighbors.

The Gazette said editorially a short time ago that there was too much of a disposition in this community to condone crime. We now desire to repeat that statement and give emphasis to it.

The safety of the officers of the law, and of the citizen peacefully pursuing his avocation, demands a more rigid enforcement of the law.

Men who defy public authority and attempt to terrorize the community deserve the most severe penalty that can be meted out to them. Society must be protected and the laws must be executed, else popular government is a failure and the citizen must protect himself.

Breathitt county is now furnishing an object lesson. The conditions prevailing there will prevail in Montgomery county if law breakers are allowed to go free or escape with the minimum punishment.

Give every man who willfully and maliciously violates the law the extreme limit. Let all understand that the good people of this county intend to protect themselves, their homes and their officials, and crime will be reduced to a minimum in this community.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

The Mills are Grinding.

The Governor is no longer silent. He finds that his hands are not tied; that he has some power, and that his duty is certainly as large as his powers. The Judge is no longer under the control of Judge Hargis and Sheriff Callahan. The prosecuting attorney has emancipated himself from their influence. The people of the State are aroused. The indictment for the assassination of Cockrell will be tried before an unbiased jury. The crime of arson and attempted bribery will be thoroughly investigated. The veto of the local power have an object lesson in the incarceration of Jett and White here, and in the punishment for small offenses of certain drunken violators of the law in Jackson. We group these facts that our readers may better understand what has been done since the real battle between the law and the criminal tyranny at Jackson opened. "The mills of the gods grind slow, but they grind exceedingly fine," and the mills are grinding.—Lexington Herald.

Want a Traction Line.

At Maysville a number of citizens from Owingsville, Mt. Olivet and Maysville met with a view of considering the feasibility of constructing a traction line connecting Owingsville with Maysville. Two routes for the proposed road were suggested—one via Sharpburg, Carlisle and Mt. Olivet; the other via Sherburne and Flemingsburg. No definite conclusion was reached, but a committee was appointed to solicit funds for providing a survey so as to determine which route would be the best and most practicable.—Flemingsburg Gazette.

The citizens of Jackson have raised $287 for the benefit of B. J. Even. The money comes in small amounts from nearly every citizen in Jackson, the Hargis brothers contributing.

GOVERNOR'S STATEMENT
 ITT COUNTY MAT-TER.

It has been our privilege, and duty as well, to read with care and deliberation the statement of Governor Beckham on the Breathitt matter. The article was timely and in defense of Kentucky and her people, and also an explanation as to his course in the matter. To all non-partisan and unprejudiced men, this letter serves as an index to the true man that he is—that loves Kentucky, the dear South Land, and stands in defense of unjust charges against his people. That he would see to it that the murderer of Marcus is punished to the laws limit—and, in this, he is unlike the Republican acting Governor (?) Taylor, when Governor Gobel was shot. The Northern and Eastern newspapers that would make great headlines of our feud out-breaks and cover their own meanness, get a sound spanking from the Governor. The Governor, by his public statement and defense of Kentucky, but the more endears himself to the people.

CONTINUE THE WORK.

The reputation made by Hon. A. F. Byrd, Commonwealth's Attorney in the prosecution of Lett and White in the Breathitt Circuit Court, is certainly an enviable one—eliciting great commendation for the ability and courage in assailing the powers of evil. He has certainly done good service, yet there remains much to be done. In fact, only a beginning has been made. If, after the expiration of the present term of office, he wishes to further serve the people of his district—in fact, the people of the State, we hope that he will have no opposition for a re-nomination as attorney. His name was suggested for the judgeship in his district, but we trust that he will not consider the suggestion. Let his good work continue until lawlessness is abated in his district.

FARMERS AND RAILROADS.

Some of the best posted and leading farmers of the county have subscribed to the new railroad—and why should not every farmer in the county do the same thing? In fact, they get more out of it than any other class of citizens. The merchant is benefited only by the increase in the volume of business, while the farmer gets cheaper coal, wire, lumber, and better prices for his cattle, hogs and sheep, and better shipping rates for his tobacco. Let every good citizen go to work in earnest for the new railroad.

BE WATCHFUL!

The prospect for a goodly number of partridges is better than it has been for years. The gun clubs should see that the law protecting birds is enforced. If they don't, every feather will be sacked, and the county will be as scarce of birds as in the past.

A New Discovery Which Has Practically Astounded the Medical Profession.

A prominent chemist of Louisville, Ky., has succeeded in perfecting a combination of Camphor with Essential Oils so as to form a perfect and remarkable relieving and curing agent for all external injuries and pains. The peculiar feature of this new remedy and that which is attracting the attention of the medical profession and public is its remarkable power of inducing copious perspiration, thereby opening the pores of the skin and allowing the camphor and Cooling, Soothing Antiseptic oils to penetrate to the source of the ailment, removing the Congestion by drawing out all Fever and Inflammation quickly. This new remedy does not heal by drying, scabbing and deadening the nerve centers around the source of the injury, but on the contrary creates activity, stimulates the circulation, soothes and cools the injured nerves allowing the wound or pain to be relieved and cured quickly without any depressing or bad after effects.

This remedy is so far superior to the old-fashioned ointments, salves and liniments that it is rapidly replacing those old-time remedies in every household. It is just what the mother, father and children need every day in their home, office or shop because of its remarkable quick relieving and healing powers.

This new product is manufactured by The Paracamp Company, of Louisville, Kentucky, and we are pleased to inform our readers that our enterprising druggist, Dr. F. C. Duerson has secured the agency for Paracamp in Mt. Sterling, and heartily recommends same to his customers.

How Cheap Baking Powder is Made

A recent seizure of a lot of "cheap" baking powder by the authorities of a neighboring city has exposed the character of the low priced brands of baking powders which many manufacturers are offering throughout the country. The price of the powders first attracted attention to them. Samples were taken and analyzed. The official report of the analysis showed the stuff to be "alum powders," composed chiefly of alum, sulphuric acid and pulverized rock. The powders were declared dangerous to health and several thousand pounds were confiscated and destroyed.

Physicians have frequently cautioned consumers against mixing food with these so called "cheap" baking powders. They are all found, when analyzed, to contain large percentages of alum and sulphuric acid to which are added various sorts of filling matter, sometimes both injurious and nasty.

The high class, cream of tartar baking powders, are the most economical and wholesome and should always be selected for use. They will be found cheaper in the end, besides making the food better and more healthful.

To The Trade.

On the first page of the ADVOCATE will appear for some months an advertisement of C. T. Flanders, the dealer in general merchandise at Judy, Ky. He has bargains for the people and he proposes to give further publicity than usual to this fact, hence has decided to use the columns of our paper. He has contracted with us for 100 subscriptions for the ADVOCATE. These papers will go regularly to citizens of Bath, Bourbon and Montgomery contiguous to Judy. Situated as he is, he is in position to sell goods at a close margin. A visit to his store will convince you that he has a large stock, which can easily and quickly be replenished, for he has had much experience in business and has money with which goods can be purchased at discount. We commend him to our readers and bespeak for him continued prosperity.

In Mt. Sterling.

Judge James Hagles' visit here last week was purely on a matter of business pertaining to his commercial interests, the statement of the penny-a-liners to the contrary notwithstanding. He did speak of the trouble in Breathitt and the suggestion made asking that he resign the Chairmanship of the Tenth District Committee. He said concerning the chairmanship agitation that he would promptly consider any suggestions made by Democrats. Men who are for the maintenance of the party, but would ignore the demand of the kind that would destroy whenever the majority saw things different. I am a Democrat and the moment I am persuaded that my holding on to the chairmanship is hurtful to the party, I will resign for I would sacrifice self rather than party. This is the way that Judge Hargis talked to his friends here, and they believe him sincere. There is no reason why any Democrat should forsake his party, except a change of principles, but there are many who will withhold support for other reasons. They are those to be taught that principles are greater than men.

Right-of-Way.

The committee to secure the right-of-way for the L. & E. connection is greatly encouraged. The parties along the line realize the necessity of such a connection; increased values it would cause, the bulk of business coming in and going out and general thrift.

Engineers will be here tomorrow and several surveys will be made initiatory to permanently locating the line. The chairman of the committee to secure the right-of-way is very hopeful.

Look Out!

We are asked to announce that Mr. Martin, the colored "divine healer," will return to this city next week. He is said to have cured Mary Settes' eyes.

A very heavy rain fell Sunday near the Somerset church. It is reported that the farmers in that section lose heavily.

Sunday-School Convention.

The County Sunday-School Union met at Camargo on Tuesday, the 23rd ult., in the Methodist Church. The attendance was estimated at not less than 500. The day was charming. The program was instructive and interesting. The music was led by the Methodist choir of this city. The exercises occupied morning and afternoon sessions. Miss Addie Peoples led the opening devotional exercises. The speakers from a distance were E. A. Fox, State S. S. Evangelist, Prof. H. K. Taylor, of the Beechmont Training School of Jefferson county, and Miss Frayser, of Louisville, who had before visited this city.

Prof. Thos. Throop was the first speaker; his subject was "The Greatest Need of the Sunday-School."

Miss Frayser considered the importance of work in the primary department. She emphasized liberality on the part of children and reverence for sacred things. She captivated the audience with her earnestness, simplicity in presenting truths and gracious manner and freedom of speech.

Rev. R. M. Lee further considered early training, emphasizing the importance of home training. "Christ the Great Teacher," was considered by Prof. Fox.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The first paper was by Mrs. Claude Paxton and was splendid. Her subject was "The Parent." We will give this in our next issue. "The Teacher" was the subject of Prof. Taylor's remarks. Prof. Fox then considered the relations of "The Pastor" to the Sunday-school. Miss Frayser told a story in childlike manner, paraphrasing the prodigal son.

There were six preachers, and 25 teachers and officers of Sunday Schools present. We doubt if a more successful convention was ever held in this county.

The following officers for the year were elected: J. S. Frazier, President; Miss Mary G. Anderson, Secretary and Treasurer; W. R. Nunnally, Vice-President, T. D. Jones, County Visitor. The next convention will be held at Somerset. A basket dinner in excess of need was spread in the grove, and was highly enjoyed. More generous and lavish hospitality of elegant substantial and delicacies we have seldom seen. To be present at the convention and feast was a privilege and pleasure.

The State's outstanding bonded debt is now only $39,000.

Miss Smith,

For Eight Years Director of Music at Hamilton College, Lexington,
Will teach a limited number of pupils during the coming winter

In MT. STERLING.

MISS SMITH is a graduate of the New England Conservatory, Boston, where she studied with Dr. Louis Mass and Otto Bendix. More recently she was a pupil of Dr. Wm. Mason of New York. MISS SMITH was both the Mason and the Leschitzky methods, having studied the latter with a pupil of the great master. Any wishing to correspond with her regarding the matter may do so through Mrs. J. L. Gruba, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

SHARPSBURG SQUIBBLETT.

We have had splendid rains and the crops look fine.

Col. W. N. Tume went to Carlisle Sunday to visit his best girl.

Mrs. Stella Cockrell and daughter, of Mt. Sterling, visited friends here last week.

Mrs. Clyde Nelson continues to improve, much to the delight of her many friends.

C. F. Browning is out again and does not look much like a man who has had the fever.

Mrs. O. P. Clarke is able to be out again. She was confined to her room several weeks last fever.

Mr. Henry Houghy and Miss Elizabeth Barbee, of Sherburne, were married at Ironton, Ohio, last Sunday.

Misses Christine Schooler and Grace Rogers, of Mt. Sterling, were the pleasant guests of Mrs. J. D. Hovema, on Main street, Tuesday.

Paul Rutherford Brown, who has been "doing-time" in the Advocate office for some time, is at home to take in the sights, pick blackberries, and, in fact, spend his summer vacation with his best girl.

Elder B. W. Trimble, one of Mt. Sterling's brightest newspaper men, was here on business one day the past week. Elder Trimble made a mistake when he left the pulpit and entered the "news-field." His work in the field is sadly missed by his co-workers in the Lord's vineyard.

It is no discredit to a man to have enemies and opposition. Too many men hesitate to take any course that will call forth the opposition of any person, because they do not want to have enemies. The world is full of "envious people." Some "folks" hate a man because he is successful in business, or occupies a prominent position in the community. The world has no animosity toward the quiet citizen, who offends no one, gets in nobody's way. It is the live man of push and energy who incurs enmity. Every man who is fearless in the discharge of his obligations in any station of life has enemies.

Drowned.

On Sunday afternoon near the ford of Slate, beyond Jeffersonville, Miss Lillie Egler, of Lexington, while visiting her mother, Mrs. B. Pratt, committed suicide by drowning. She was about 17 years of age. Previous to going to Lexington, about one year ago, she lived for some years with Howard Wilson, and later with Mrs. Wilson near this city. It is health is reported as the cause of her act. The following note was left to her mother:

DEAR MAMA:—
In your name I write to you, so you will know what has become of me. Ma, I didn't want to live and you needn't grieve after me, because I can't grieve. This is all you can see of me.

The Man of the Hour in Kentucky.

Prosecutor Andrew Floyd Byrd, of Wolfe county, probably fills a larger place in the public eye today than any other man in a similar position in the State. This is due to his rigid prosecution of the murderers of Attorney Jas. B. Marcum in Jackson. Mr. Byrd has been Prosecuting Attorney in the Breathitt district for six years and will likely be a candidate for another term, although pressure is being brought to bear on him to announce himself a candidate for Attorney General prior to the next State convention. Many persons have told him that he was the greatest and most daring Prosecutor in the State, but his head does not seem to be turned by such statements from people who think he is taking his life in his own hands to lay bare in open court as he did the horrors of the Breathitt count assassinations. Mr. Byrd said: "I do not feel in the least unsafe. I prosecuted Jett and White no more vigorously than I have prosecuted scores of men in Breathitt county. The people were more interested in these cases and were watching closer, that is all. And then the evidence in these cases gave a greater latitude, affording a better insight to the plots of conspirators and the acts of their tools."

Joe Talks.

United Senator J. C. S. Blackburn thinks Senator Gorman, of Maryland, is the logical candidate for the Democrats to name for President.

"Cleveland and Bryan should not be brought prominently before the convention," said the Kentucky statesman. "Capital has been afraid and cannot be reconciled to this principle he advocates. With Gorman we can win. He is a conservative man, having the confidence of the people, not only in the East, but in every section. A Westernman should have second place."

Senator Blackburn was asked for an expression upon the Kentucky feud situation. He said the right thing had been done by Gov. Beckham in getting the trial outside the feud belt.

So far as the Times has observed, the Republican papers of Kentucky are a unit in the demand that the assassin of Judge Marcum should receive the extreme penalty of the law. But the times is not far in the past when the most of them looked upon assassination with much less vigor. They chirped in a feeble way that assassination was wrong, but none of them made any marked effort to discover and bring the assassin to punishment.—Georgetown Times.

The transferring of the trials of Jett and White from Breathitt to Harrison has created considerable interest in the personnel of the Court that is to try the accused men. We take great pleasure in saying that we have the utmost confidence that the men on trial will get a fair and impartial hearing before Judge Osborne. He is not only an able Judge, but he has proven himself to be just and fair. Jett and White will be given a fair trial beyond the shadow of a doubt. To this it can be added that Commonwealth's Attorney Fryer will not in any manner neglect to see that exact justice is done to both prisoners and the Commonwealth.—Carleise Mercury.

Public Nuisance.

The Court of Appeals holds that boxing contests, or prize fights, are a public nuisance, and that the owners of halls and premises may be enjoined from allowing the use of their property for such contests. The opinion was handed down by Judge Settle and Judge Paynter, Barker and Nunn dissent.

Barney Oldfield, of Dayton, O., broke the world's automobile record in Indianapolis. A mile was covered in 59 3-5 seconds.

It is What the Reader Has Long Sought

People will read advertisements about cures made by medicine. As they read they wonder if the statements are true. If true, was the relief temporary or permanent? Read this case about Doan's Kidney Pills:

W. H. Clarke, of Bennett street, accountant at the Bloch Bros. Tobacco Works, Wheeling, W. Va., says: "If my back aches I know what will cure it. Doan's Kidney Pills. They are the best remedy I ever came across. For months I was plagued with backache, not sharp pains, but a dull aching all the time, that made me feel miserable. I got medicine on different occasions from doctors, and it seemed to relieve me for the time, but it was soon as bad as ever. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I took a course of the treatment. They cured me, and that cure has been lasting. I will corroborate this in a personal interview or in reply to any communication mailed to me."

Educational.

The meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association which had been on for three or four days in Lexington, was brought to a close Thursday afternoon. Mayville will be the next place of meeting. State Superintendent McChesney made a forceful appeal to the teachers to go to their districts and urge the counties to vote for the small increased tax which would give an eight-months' school term instead of five, as the State law grants them the right to do. Prof. H. M. Gunn, of this city, was elected President of the Reading Circle Board.

THE FORD'S BLACK DRAUGHT FOR CONSTIPATION

Constipation is nothing more than a clogging of the bowels, and a clogging of the bowels is a dangerous condition. It is a condition that can lead to death if not relieved. If every constipated sufferer could realize that he is allowing a poisonous filth to remain in his system, he would soon get relief. Constipation invites all kind of contagion. Headaches, biliousness, colds and many other ailments disappear when constipated bowels are relieved. Ford's Black-Draught thoroughly cleans out the bowels in an easy and natural manner without the purging of calomel or other violent cathartics.

Be sure that you get the original Ford's Black-Draught, made by The Chattanooga Medicine Co. Sold by all druggists in 25 cent and $1.00 packages.

Morgan, Ark., May 25, 1901.
I cannot recommend Ford's Black-Draught too highly. I kept it in my house all the time and have used it for the last ten years. I never gave my children any other laxative. I think I could never be able to work without it. On account of being troubled with constipation. Your medicine is all that I have ever used.

SHOOTING at WINCHESTER

On Thursday about supper time G. L. Waincott, a business man and member of the city council of Winchester, went to his home where he shot and seriously wounded his sister-in-law, Miss Maggie Miller, of Waco, Texas, who with her father, D. J. Miller, has been visiting the Waincott home for about a month. Mr. Waincott claims that they have been endeavoring to alienate his wife. He claims that he was attacked by them, Miss Miller using a cane and her father a knife.

Mrs. Waincott says when Mr. Waincott came home he went immediately to his room and got his revolver. The supper bell rang and as she was passing to the dining room her husband threw her to the floor and began choking her. Miss Miller and her father came to the rescue. Mr. Miller had his knife in his hand, but it was not open. Mr. Waincott drew his revolver and fired at Miss Miller. The ball entered the left breast above the heart, penetrating the lung, and passed through the body. The affair created great excitement. Waincott called Sheriff McCord and surrendered. He was not committed to jail, but on Friday morning gave bond for $2,000. The wound was a serious one.

After the shooting the wounded woman was carried to the residence of Jno. E. Bean, who lives next door. Mrs. Bean has for some years been in feeble health with heart trouble. The excitement was too much for her endurance, and a collapse came, resulting in her death on Friday afternoon.

DEATHS.

SNOWDEN.—On Thursday, June 26, 1903, the little son of David Snowden died at the home in this city. The burial was beyond Indian Fields on Friday. To them, in their sorrow and loss, we extend our sympathy.

STATION.—James W. Station, Past Grand Master of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Kentucky, died early Saturday morning. Death resulted from a stroke of paralysis sustained on June 10 at a banquet following the declamatory exercises attending the laying of the corner stone of the new Bourbon Court-house.

BALENGER.—Buford Ballenger, aged 89 years, died at his home in this city on Wednesday, June 24, 1903. The funeral service was held by Rev. H. D. Clark at the residence and the burial was at Macphelah on Thursday. From childhood he was a member of the Methodist church. He leaves two sons—Wm., at Pine Grove, and Joseph, of Hillsboro, O.; and two daughters: Mrs. Sarah Miller, of Lexington, and Mrs. O. H. Willoughby, of this city.

PITMAN.—On Saturday, June 27, from meningitis, Charles Reis, one-year-old son of Charles Pitman and wife, passed into the home prepared for the "Little Children." Funeral service was conducted at the home Monday by Rev. H. D. Clark and burial in Macphelah. By the death of this child cherished hopes were crushed and fond parents look out into a world blighted with tears. May they be reminded that the little one liveth—that the separation is only for a little while, and that soon fond parents, by faith in the Redeemer, will be re-united with the little one and that for all eternity.

BEAN.—Mrs. Anna Bright Bean, wife of John E. Bean, died quite suddenly Friday afternoon at her home on South Maple street, of heart disease, from which she had suffered for a long time. The remains were carried to Danville Sunday morning for interment. Mrs. Bean was originally Miss Croxon, a daughter of Gen. Thomas T. Croxon, a Federal General during the civil war and afterwards Minister to Bolivia. She was twice married, her husband being Mr. Lucian Logan, a druggist of Danville, and after his death she married Mr. John E. Bean, of this city. She leaves a husband and daughter, Miss Carolyn Logan, aged about twelve years. Mrs. Bean was a lovely woman, a great favorite with all who knew her, and her death has caused universal sorrow. We join a host of friends in sympathy with the bereaved husband and daughter.—Winchester Democrat.

Union Meetings.

The Pastor's Alliance of the city has arranged for the usual union meetings to be held on Sunday evenings during the months of July and August. The following is the schedule of places of meeting and of pastors delivering the sermon: July 6th, Baptist—Rev. J. E. Abbott; 12th, Southern Presbyterian—Dr. Weber; 13th, First Presbyterian—Rev. H. D. Clark; 26th, Christian—Rev. Geo. Joplin.

Rev. Mr. Abbott announces that by request of members of his congregation, he will repeat the sermon delivered at his church last Sunday on "Training of the Young" at the union service next Sabbath.

A Sweet Business.

Dr. J. W. Rutherford, of Sharpsburg, was here yesterday and just to pay expenses brought 75 pounds of honey. He has six stands of bees and has taken from them 285 pounds. T. H. Thompson, also of Sharpsburg, was here and says he has one stand, five weeks old, from which he has sold $13.90 worth of honey.

MARRIAGES.

WALKER PUGH.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Beulah Pugh, of Vanceburg, to Rev. Walker, pastor of the Vanceburg Christian Church. Miss Pugh has frequently visited in this county and is very popular.

MINACUCHI-BUCKNER.

A Lexington paper announces Yutaka Minacuchi, of Japan, who is a graduate of Kentucky University, and known in Central Kentucky, will on July 9, be married to Miss Olivia Buckner, of Bourbon county, a beautiful and wealthy young woman. He has frequently visited in this county. He became a Christian under the teaching of Miss Lavina Oldham.

HARDY-ELLIOTT.

On Wednesday noon, June 24th 1903, at Little Rock, Bourbon county, Mr. Leslie Hardy, of Tucson, Arizona, was married to Miss Carrie Elliott, of Little Rock, formerly of Kiddville, Ky. The ceremony was by Rev. H. D. Clark, of this city, at the home of Dr. Wilkerson, brother-in-law of the bride. This is the third sister of the family at whose marriage Rev. Clark has officiated. Luncheon was served at the home of Mrs. Ray Barrows.

The guests were the groom's brother and family from Tucson, Dr. Robbins and wife, of Grassy; Mrs. Cliff Daniel, of Kiddville; Rev. Clark and Miss Bettie Roberts, of this city. The bride and groom left at once for a visit at Torrent, and will go to Tucson late in August when he will resume duties as conductor on a passenger train.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

On Friday evening a reception was given by the Sunday School to the members of the Christian church in the church auditorium. The platform was transformed into a bower of beauty by many ferns, palms, and cut and potted flowers. The arch-way was draped with lace curtains festooned with roses, etc. Near the pulpit was a table ornamented with nasturtiums from which "ice cold lemonade" was served. Delicious ices and cakes were served in the Sunday School room from a large circular table, most elaborately decorated with crystal candelabra, sweet peas and maiden hair fern. The attendance was estimated from 400 to 500. The event was a conspicuous feature in social church circles. The infant class was not present, but will be entertained later.

Flooded!

Our press and stock-rooms were flooded by the storm on Saturday afternoon. The out-side of to-day's issue had been run-off and some of these papers were soiled. This explains why the appearance of the Advocate is on some sheets, somewhat disfigured. We are not responsible for the storm. Neither are we responsible for the inefficient sewerage and defective protection on Main street.

New Millinery Firm.

Misses Agnes Walsh and Lillie Tait have rented three rooms in the postoffice building and are having them thrown into one to be used as a millinery store. Their stock will be here in time for the early fall trade. We are sure these women of experience in their business will not only share in the trade here but will be the means of adding largely to it. The room will be made a model for the millinery business, and the fixtures will be very attractive.

After a four week's tie-up caused by flood, street car traffic has been resumed between Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kansas.

Roberts & Mastin have rented the business house recently occupied by them and will continue there indefinitely.

RELIGIOUS.

Presiding Elder, Rev. A. Redd, will be here Saturday, and will conduct quarterly meeting on Sunday.

Rev. W. J. Bolin preached for the Second Baptist church at Knoxville, Tenn., last Sunday morning and evening. He will be here Wednesday in time to conduct prayer meeting, and will fill his pulpit next Sunday morning.

Mr. W. H. Jones, who graduated from the Bible College and Arts College of Kentucky University in June, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Christian Church at Palmyra, Mo. Mr. Jones has preached for the Bethel and Sharpsburg churches, in Bath county. He is from St. Louis, and last December was married to a Miss Cox, of Moberly, Mo.

A dispatch from New Haven, Conn., says that Mr. Herbert Martin, a graduate of Kentucky University, is one of the big prize winners of the year at Yale. He captured a scholarship for proficiency in philosophy. He won a scholarship in philosophy in Harvard last year by competitive examination. He is now doing Ph. D. work.

Rev. Martin has been pastor of the Somerset church in this county.

Rev. Weber, of Virginia, father of Rev. J. L. Weber, preached at Methodist Church on Sunday morning, at evening Rev. Thomas M. Hu, of China, made an interesting talk on China and its needs. He is a graduate of Southwestern University, in Texas, and has been a student at Vanderbilt.

BASE BALL

For the Benefit of the Public Fountain.

A team of doctors and lawyers will play a picked nine of merchants on Wednesday, July 8. Game called at 3 o'clock, at Riddell's Park. Admission, 25c.

Postponed.

The examining trial of Nim Byrd has been postponed from time to time until the result of Smith's wounds is definitely known. It was continued on Monday.

During the hot weather it would be nice for the house wife to arrange for Sunday dinners at the Star Restaurant on Bank street.

THE SICK.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP ITEMS.

It was bought from the farmers throughout the State by the foreign buyers. The samples will be sent to Italy and will be inspected by the Government officials there before the tobacco will be shipped. If any of the tobacco is rejected by that Government it will be offered at the auction sales on the local breaks.

S. K. Hodgkin bought of E. S. Cunningham 29 fat cattle, weight 1,050 pounds, at $4, less $25 on the lot.

Big Deal at Spencer.

Chas. E. Duff has sold to his partner, Fred McCormick, his interest in the mercantile business heretofore conducted by McCormick & Duff; also his residence and farm and store-house, together with notes and accounts connected with the mercantile business. Mr. McCormick has already taken possession of the store.

Mr. Duff has bought of his grandfather, S. A. Duff, his interest in the 200 acre farm sold by Col. Johnson to S. A. Duff and W. T. Swango some months ago. The price is $100 per acre. He will build a residence there and occupy it.

Encampment at Jackson.

Governor Beckham has decided that Jackson will be the seat of the summer encampment of the Second Regiment of the Kentucky State Guards. The companies which have already been there will not have to do further service. This will save the State a big expense as troops have to be kept there for several weeks, or months.

W. Q. Stephens, formerly of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Stephens, made the highest score in the gun club shoot at Charleston, Ill., last week, breaking 39 out of 40 birds.

Dr. C. W. Harris has purchased of Mrs. R. M. Smith, her lot on Howard avenue, and will erect a modern residence on it.
